BIO: After two years in Brooklyn, Leah recently located back to Austin, Texas.

Her brand started with an Etsy shop in 2008, which has quickly grown to include retailers internationally as well as collaborations with companies such as Urban Outfitters, O'Neill, Galison, Teva, and the Land of Nod.

Leah's collections are hand drawn and reflect her unique sensibility and soft color palettes. Inspired by a love of nature, her east Austin neighborhood, the southwest, and her Cherokee roots she has established a recognizable voice that speaks simplicity and beauty with quirky and organic themes.
